Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims ⁶6-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being unpatentable over Guheen et al. (US 6,721,713)

Guheen et al. Disclos a system for making computer implemented multiple life-cycle plans, comprising:

- a user interface (78-fig.51; 612-fig. 57; also see user interface (UI) throughout the spec.) including data entry elements for receiving life cycle planning data from a user and displaying plan results to the user (fig.57);
- a planning engine (server), coupled to the user interface, and configured to perform the steps of: allocating the planning data to a plurality of items, each item having at least one variable, and each item configured to be preset in or absent from each life cycle plan; and determining a plan result for each plan using only the item that are present in the plan (col.33, lines 55-col.37, line 60);
- determining values of item variables for a first set of items (202);

Art Unit: 3628

- constructing a first plan according to the first set of items, and storing an indication that each item in the first set of item is active in the first plan; determining values of item variables for a second set of items (col.43, lines 35-col.53, line 56);
- constructing a second plan according to the second set of items, the second set of items including at least one item from the first set of items, and storing an indication that each item in the second set of items is active in the second plan (col.64, line 35-col.70, line 25); and
- determining a result for each plan according to the items active in the plan; and displaying the results (see “development process framework”).

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 7-15 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

Art Unit: 3628

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
